

Leeds Church Institute

Privacy Notice

1 Introduction

a) Leeds Church Institute (LCI) is a charity registered with the Charity Commission in England and Wales. Our charity number is 220966 and our registered address is 43 The Calls, Leeds LS7 2EY. In this Notice, references to 'LCI', 'we' and 'us' mean Leeds Church Institute.

b) When you provide us with Personal Data in order to engage with us and/or benefit from our activities, we will keep a record of the data you give to us in order to enable us to comply with our statutory obligations and to achieve our charitable objects.

c) For the purpose of the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/279 (GDPR), LCI (through its Trustees) will be a Data Controller in respect of your Personal Data. In some cases, LCI may be a joint Data Controller of your Personal Data (e.g., where your data is shared between LCI and a partner organisation for a particular purpose).

d) Everyone has rights with regard to how their Personal Data is handled by organisations. LCI is committed to ensuring that Personal Data is properly and securely managed in accordance with the relevant data protection laws, and believes this is an important part of achieving trust and confidence between LCI and those with whom it interacts. Please read this Notice to understand how we use and protect the information that you provide to us or that we obtain or hold about you, and to understand what your rights are in relation to information that we hold. This Notice applies to information about living identifiable individuals only.

2 What Personal Data do we hold about you?

a) We may hold the following types of Personal Data:

- i) name and contact details;
- ii) gender, age, date of birth, marital status and nationality;
- iii) information about your education/work history and professional qualifications;
- iv) information about your family and any dependants;
- v) information about your current involvement in LCI activities and events;
- vi) financial information (e.g., bank details) and details of any donations you have made to us or payments we have made to you in the past;
- vii) information obtained as a result of any background checks on staff, contributors or volunteers;
- viii) CCTV recordings and photographs;
- ix) information we collect through your use of our website(s) such as IP addresses and other information collected using cookies;
- x) any other information which you choose to provide to us or that we are provided by others.

Leeds Church Institute

Privacy Notice

b) We may also hold Special Categories of Personal Data e.g., information about your religious beliefs, information about your health and wellbeing, information revealing racial or ethnic origins, information concerning your sexual orientation or in the case of background checks, information about criminal records or proceedings.

c) We may also receive personal data about you from third parties, for example, your family members, partner organisations, medical professionals, the police and other law enforcement bodies

3 How and why do we process your Personal Data?

a) The Personal Data which we hold about you, whether it is collected directly from you or whether we receive it from a third party, may be Processed in a number of ways, for example:

- i) to communicate with you in relation to news about, or activities and events taking place at, LCI or with a partner organisation, including seeking feedback and informing you of any changes to our activities;
- ii) to improve our activities and the way we communicate with you including our website or social media;
- iii) to carry out our activities;
- iv) to process donations that you may make to us or other payments where, for example, you hire facilities belonging to LCI;
- v) to administer, support, improve and develop the administration of the LCI's work and operations and to keep LCI's accounts and records up to date;
- vi) to process applications from you, including grant applications and applications for a role within LCI;
- vii) for audit and statistical purposes;
- viii) to ensure we comply with our legal obligations (e.g., by providing information to the Charity Commission or HMRC or carrying out safeguarding activities);
- ix) in the case of CCTV recordings, to prevent or detect crime, and to help create a safer environment for our staff and visitors;

b) Any information gathered through cookies and similar technologies via the LCI website, is used to measure and analyse information on visits to the website, to tailor the website to make it better for visitors and to improve technical performance. We will not use the data to identify you personally or to make any decisions about you.

4 On what grounds do we process your Personal Data?

a) We must have a lawful basis for processing your information; this will vary according to the circumstances of how and why we have your information, but typical examples include:

- i) the activities are within our legitimate interests in advancing and maintaining the charitable purpose of LCI, in providing information about the activities of the LCI, and to raise charitable funds;

Leeds Church Institute

Privacy Notice

- ii) you have given consent [which can be withdrawn at any time by contacting us using the details below] for us to process your information e.g., to send you marketing or fundraising communications by email or text;
- iii) we are carrying out necessary steps in relation to a contract to which you are party or prior to you entering into a contract e.g., where you enter into a hire agreement for one of our facilities;
- iv) the processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation e.g., where we pass on information to a local authority for safeguarding or other reasons;
- v) the processing is necessary for carrying out a task in the public interest
- vi) to protect your vital interests e.g., if you were unfortunate enough to fall ill or suffer an injury on our premises, then we may pass on information to the NHS for treatment purposes and to family members.

b) If we process any special categories of personal data, we must have a further lawful basis for the processing. This may include:

- i) where you have given us your explicit consent to do so e.g., to cater for your medical or dietary needs at an event;
- ii) where the processing is necessary to protect your vital interests or someone else's vital interests e.g., passing on information to the Police;
- iii) where the processing is carried out in the course of our legitimate interests as a registered charity working with others and the information is not shared outside LCI, except for partner organisations, other than with your consent;
- iv) you have made the information public;
- v) where the processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- vi) where the processing is necessary for carrying out LCI's employment and social security obligations;
- vii) the processing being necessary for reasons of substantial public interest e.g., where steps are taken to prevent fraud or other dishonest activity;
- viii) provided that the legal basis is proportionate to the aim pursued and provides for suitable and specific measures to safeguard your rights, or as part of our legitimate interests as a charitable institution.

5 Who will we share your information with?

- a) We will only use your Personal Data within LCI for the purposes for which it was obtained, unless you have explicitly agreed that we may share your personal data with another organisation or unless we are otherwise permitted or required to under the Data Protection Rules or order of a Court or other competent regulatory body or as set out in this Notice.
- b) We may share your information with government bodies for tax purposes or law enforcement agencies for the prevention and detection of crime.

Leeds Church Institute

Privacy Notice

- c) Sometimes LCI may decide to contract with third parties whom we ask to process personal data on our behalf (e.g., IT consultants and directories). We require these third parties to comply strictly with our instructions and with the GDPR.
- d) We also may be required to share your personal data so that LCI can benefit from Gift Aid nominations you have made e.g., with HMRC.
- e) In the course of processing your personal data, or disclosing it to the recipients referred to above, we may transfer it to countries which are outside the United Kingdom, some of which may not have laws which provide the same level of protection to your personal data as laws inside the UK. In such cases we will take steps to ensure that the transfers comply with the GDPR and that your personal data is appropriately protected.

We have in place administrative, technical and physical measures designed to guard against and minimise the risk of loss, misuse or unauthorised processing or disclosure of the personal data that we hold.

6 How long will we keep your information for?

- a) Your information will be kept in accordance with Retention & Disposal of Records guidelines, details of which are available from the Data Protection Officer (contact details are below). In any event, we will endeavour to only keep personal data for as long as is necessary and to delete it when it is no longer so.

7 Your rights

- a) You have rights in respect of the personal data you provide to us. In particular:
 - i) the right to request a copy of some or all of the personal data that we hold about you (including, in some cases, in a commonly used, machine readable, format so that it can be transferred to other Data Controllers). We do not make a charge for this service;
 - ii) if we process your personal data on the basis that we have your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent;
 - iii) the right to ask that any inaccuracies in your personal data are corrected;
 - iv) the right to have us restrict the processing of all or part of your personal data;
 - v) the right to ask that we delete your personal data where there is no compelling reason for us to continue to process it;
 - vi) the right to object to us processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes e.g., in relation to activities carried out by LCI;
 - vii) the right not to be subject to legal or other significant decisions being taken about you on the basis of an automated process i.e., without human intervention.

Leeds Church Institute

Privacy Notice

b) Please note that the above rights may be limited in some situations, for example, where we can demonstrate that we have a legal requirement to process your personal data. Also, we may need you to provide us with proof of identity for verification and data security purposes before you can exercise your rights.

c) Rights may only be exercised by the individual whose information is being held by LCI or with that individual's express permission. Children from 13 years upwards are entitled to make their own requests and parents / guardians / family members do not have an automatic right to see information about their child or prevent their child from making a request to LCI.

8 Changes to this Notice

a) We may make changes to this Notice from time to time as our organisational practices and/or applicable laws change. We will not make any use of your personal information that is inconsistent with the original purpose(s) for which it was collected or obtained (if we intend to do so, we will notify you in advance wherever possible) or otherwise than is permitted by data protection laws.

9 Contact Details

a) If you have any questions, require further information about how we protect your personal data, if you wish to exercise any of the above rights or if you would like to provide feedback or make a complaint about the use of your information, please contact the LCI DPO: Mr Alistair Cheetham, Leeds Church Institute, 43 The Calls, LEEDS LS2 7EY; finance@leedschurchinstitute.org

b) Any complaints will be dealt with in accordance with LCI's Complaints Policy.

c) We hope that we can satisfy any queries you may have about the way in which we process your personal data. However, if you have unresolved concerns, you also have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner ('ICO') at ico.org.uk a) Cookies, also known as browsers or tracking cookies, are small text files that are added to your computer when you visit a website. They help websites to perform certain functions e.g., to know who you are if you log into a restricted part of a website, for shopping carts, and for tracking purposes.

10 Cookies

b) LCI may use the following cookies:

i) Google Analytics. We use Google Analytics cookies on the website for tracking purposes. The cookies allow us to understand general traffic to our website for example number of visitors and length of time on site. This process does collect data, but in an anonymous form, to help us make improvements, develop the website and enhance the user experience.

Leeds Church Institute

Privacy Notice

ii) Privacy preferences. We use a tracking cookie, which is added to your computer, to remember your cookie preferences i.e., if you have allowed or disallowed them.

11 Manage Cookies

a) If you would like to opt-in or opt-out of using cookies then you should be able to do so using your browser. You can review your cookie settings at any time.

b) Please note that you cannot opt-out of the deployment of cookies that are necessary for delivery of our website or services to visitors.

12 Glossary

a) “Data Controller” means a person, organisation or body that determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data is processed. A Data Controller is responsible for complying with the data protection laws including the GDPR and establishing practices and policies in line with them.

b) “Data Processor” means any person, organisation or body that Processes personal data on behalf of and on the instruction of LCI. Data Processors have a duty to protect the information they process by following data protection laws.

c) “Data Subject” means a living individual about whom LCI processes Personal Data and who can be identified from the personal data. A Data Subject need not be a UK national or resident. All Data Subjects have legal rights in relation to their Personal Data and the information that LCI holds about them.

d) “Personal Data” means any information relating to a living individual who can be identified from that information or in conjunction with other information, which is in, or is likely to come into, the LCI’s possession. Personal data can be factual (such as a name, address or date of birth) or it can be an opinion (e.g., a performance appraisal). It can even include a simple email address. A mere mention of someone’s name in a document does not necessarily constitute personal data, but personal details such as someone’s contact details or salary (if it enabled an individual to be identified) would fall within the definition.

e) “Processing” means any activity that involves use of personal data. It includes obtaining, recording or holding the information or carrying out any operation or set of operations on it, including organising, amending, retrieving, using, disclosing, erasing or destroying it. Processing also includes transferring or disclosing personal data to third parties.

f) “Special Categories of personal data” (previously called sensitive personal data) means information about a person’s racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or similar beliefs, trade union membership, physical or mental health or condition or sexuality. It also includes genetic and biometric data. Special Categories of personal data can only be processed under strict conditions and such processing will usually, although not always, require the explicit consent of the data subject.

Leeds Church Institute

Privacy Notice